

Davidson Deem and Protecting Your Data

Davidson Deem Limited ("Davidson Deem") is an appointed representative of Lumin Wealth Management Limited, who is part of Lumin Group Limited ("Lumin"). Davidson Deem is committed to protecting the privacy of its clients and we therefore ask that you please read this Data Protection Agreement before providing us with any information about you or any other person.

This agreement explains when and why we collect personal information about people who enquire about or arrange a mortgage with Davidson Deem. The agreement also explains how we use that information, the conditions under which we may disclose information to others, and how we keep personal information secure.

The Regulation

Davidson Deem are regulated by the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) who are the UK's independent body set up to uphold information rights. Davidson Deem, as a Data Controller, are legally obligated to comply with the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) which applies to all UK and EU business who process personal data from 25th May 2018. This ensures that, as Davidson Deem's client, you can be certain that Davidson Deem will manage and process your personal data in line with the newest regulations.

Definitions

Data Controller- Davidson Deem is classed as a Data Controller as we will determine the purpose and the means in which your personal data is processed with respect to the advice that we give.

Personal Data- when using the term "personal data", we are referring to information that relates to you and allows us to identify you, either directly, or in combination with other information that we may hold, which may include your address, date of birth, income, assets etc.

Special Category Data- As part of our service we may be required to collect Special Category Data about you to help us to understand your personal circumstances and to help you to achieve your goals. This may be personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing genetic data, biometric data, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.

The Purpose and Lawful Basis for Processing your Personal Data

We currently collect and process personal identifiers, contracts, and characteristics (for example, name and contact details) and financial information. You acknowledge and understand that we process your personal and financial data (electronic and/or paper based) with regards to your circumstances, as this is a contractual requirement to be able to advise you on your financial planning needs. You also acknowledge that Davidson Deem is allowed, for legitimate business purposes, to share your personal information within the Lumin group of companies, which includes any company that is owned wholly or in part by Lumin Group Limited. Without your agreement to process your data we will not be able to fulfil your financial planning requirements as it is essential to carry out this contract. You can withdraw consent to process your data at any time by contacting us, but this will result in an inability to provide you with financial advice.

Relatives Personal Data

When Davidson Deem gathers data regarding your personal and financial situation, we may need to obtain data regarding your spouse or children to give you more rounded advice. The ongoing processing of their data falls under the lawful basis for processing titled 'legitimate interest,' since it is required for the continuation of the service offered by Davidson Deem. Without this information, we may not be able to provide you with the personalised and high standard of service we endeavour to give all our clients. If this is required, please ensure that either they complete the consent box below or provide sufficient details for us to provide this document to them.

Third Parties and your Personal Data

We may disclose your information to Lumin Group and its subsidiaries, including Lumin Group Limited, Lumin Wealth Limited, Lumin Wealth Management Limited and our parent company VZ Group. In some instances, we may transfer data to entities within the VZ Group located in Switzerland, but only where necessary for legitimate business purposes. As Switzerland is considered a third-country under European data protection regulations, we ensure that any data transfers to Swiss entities are in full compliance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements. VZ Group adheres to Swiss data protection laws to safeguard the privacy and security of your personal information.

We confirm that your personal data will not be used, or transferred by us to any other external firm, company, entity, or person without your consent to do so, or without your acceptance of the financial advice to apply to specific product providers i.e. Ascentric or Aegon. These providers are Joint Data Controllers and are responsible for processing your personal data under the GDPR in the same manner as Davidson Deem.

Please also be aware that some service providers may provide some of their services from centres in countries outside Europe (such as India and the USA) that do not always have the same standard of data protection laws as the UK. However, they are required to put a contract in place to ensure that your information is adequately protected, and they will remain bound by their obligations under the Data Protection laws even when your personal information is processed outside Europe. We may also provide information to our regulators the FCA or ICO upon request for regulatory purposes only.

Where Personal Data is not obtained directly from the Client

In order to verify your identification, we are required to use a third-party Anti-Money Laundering provider to carry out verification services on our behalf. We have chosen SmartSearch as they are extremely reputable and maintain the high standards that Davidson Deem looks for when using contractors. They are therefore classed as Joint Data Controllers as we share some of your personal data with them to obtain certain certification documents. For further information please see the client agreement.

Your Rights available under the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR)

Under the new regulation your rights have been enhanced and updated to ensure you have more control over the data that Davidson Deem holds. These include:

- Request access to your personal information- - known as a subject access request, and request certain information in relation to its processing.
- Request rectification of your personal information – You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information if you think it is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.
- Request erasure of your personal information in certain circumstances.
- Request that we restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.
- Object to the processing of your information in certain circumstances.
- Right to data portability – you have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

If you require more information on these please contact the Lumin Data Protection Officer at the address below or the ICO website at ico.org.uk.

Marketing

We may collect and use your personal information for the purpose of communicating with you by email, telephone and post.

Our financial planning and investment insights comprise a range of communication means. Direct marketing activities are based on legitimate interests to do so for information and business development purposes. By providing your personal data you consent to us contacting you through all of our communication methods.

You have the option to discontinue receiving communication from us. To opt-out from receiving communications please follow the unsubscribe instructions included in every email or alternatively contact the office directly.

Cookies

Our website use cookies. Cookies are small text files stored on your device; they can be used by websites to make a user's experience more efficient and provide personalised content. For detailed information on how we use cookies and how to withdraw your consent, please see our cookie policy: <https://davidsondeem.co.uk/about/cookies-policy/>

Analytics

We may use third-party service providers to monitor and analyse the use of our Service.

Google Analytics is a web analytics service offered by Google that tracks and reports website traffic. Google uses the data collected to track and monitor the use of our Service. This data is shared with other Google services including Google Maps, Google AdWords and Google Remarketing.

For more information on the privacy practices of Google, please visit the Google Privacy & Terms webpage: <https://policies.google.com/privacy>

To opt-out of the cookie tracking and withdraw your consent please see our cookie policy; <https://policies.google.com/privacy>

Retention periods for your personal data

If you become a Davidson Deem client we will retain your personal data throughout the contract period, following termination of this contract, and until you are deceased. This is because under FCA regulation there are no clear limitations as to when a client can make a complaint regarding the financial advice from firms. Therefore, it is necessary to keep all data such that Davidson Deem could defend a potential legal claim in the future. You do however have the right to restrict the processing of your data should you require it.

If you are a prospective client, we will retain your data for 2 years, after which point, we will delete it, unless you revoke your consent to process your data sooner than this.

Minors

If you have a child under the age of 13, please tick the opt-in box below to confirm that you consent on their behalf for Davidson Deem to process their person data for the purpose of fully understanding your personal and financial situation, an exercise required for the continuation of the service offered by Davidson Deem.

I/ We consent to Davidson Deem collecting and processing data on any minor I/we name on the fact find.

Questions or concerns

Should you require any assistance, or you are concerned that your personal data has not been handled correctly, then you can make a complaint by writing to the Data Protection Officer at Lumin Wealth Management Limited, First Floor, 5 Sandridge Park, Porters Wood, St. Albans, Hertfordshire, AL3 6PH; by calling our telephone number 01727 893 333 or by contacting the ICO at www.ico.org.uk/concerns/ or by calling their telephone number 0303 123 1113.

Agreement

I/We understand and consent to the terms of this data protection agreement including the explicit consent to process my special category data. I understand I have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, but it may affect the advice Davidson Deem provides.
